2007 KANSAS CITY CYCLOCROSS NATIONALS

Can you spare space in your shack?

Hosts Needed! GOT SOME SPACE?

Can you provide a laid back, comfortable, low stress living situation where guests can come and go as they please without feeling like an intruder?

Can you provide Space in fridge/ counter tops to store food and offer access to your kitchen?

Can you provide access to laundry facilities and showers?

Can you provide a bed of some kind with linens (a bed can consist of a blow-up mattress)?

Can you provide a quiet place to rest, relax and sleep?

Athletes: NEED SOME SPACE?

Riders Using Host Housing Should:

Be courteous at all times.

Clean up after yourself.

Leave everything as you found it.

Upon departure it is unspoken protocol that you'll leave a card/small gift.

Always, always, always leave any podium flowers for your hosts.

-----
"From a rider's perspective it is always a little uncomfortable (no matter how many times you have done it) coming into someone else's home and trying to be comfortable but at the same time not disturb their normal lives too much."
Kelly Benjamin, Pro Rider, Cheerwine
